

Your means-tested fee certificate for 2023 for NAME OF CHILD with child code CODE is available in December 2023.

Dear,

Every year on 1 January, your means-tested fee for childcare is automatically indexed. The indexation for 2024 is 4%. You do not need to do anything yourself for this.

How does it work?

1. In December 2023, you will receive an e-mail from Kind en Gezin telling you that your new means-tested fee certificate is here.
2. Go to mijn.kindengezin.be, click on the Inkomenstarief tile and sign in with your digital key (eID, federal token, or itsme). You will find your new certificate in the overview of your certificates.
3. Deliver the certificate to your childcare setting by 15 January 2024. You do not need to do this if your childcare setting lets you know not to.

Important

Apply for a new certificate yourself only if:

- Your family composition has changed
- You have an additional dependent child since your last certificate
